ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when grapes are taken; it is pleasant and healthy to eat them.

They are the best, though they may be old.

An old citizen of Allen county related to me some very interesting facts concerning the late W. L. Hillman, of Franklin, Illinois, who had just passed away. He was a well-known westhesis man in his section, and was known to be a miser. It will be remembered that just before he died he burned up $60,000 in money and other property in his house, and left his wife and son to care for him and his household.

A gang of men dressed in disguise went to a man's house by the name of Hollow White trying to secure him to give some of Judge Lynch's unpleasant history, but he was not at home, so the gang went to the house of his son, who had just arrived from college.

The son was away, so the gang
went to the house of his wife.

They were met by a man who had just come from the city of Louisville to get a new job.

He told the gang that he had been a waiter in a hotel in Louisville and had been dismissed because he was a gambler.

The Senate has passed Mr. Tiches' bill for road tax for this county.

HON. J. PROCTOR KNOTT is the nominee of the Democratic party of Marion county for the Constitutional Convention.

Mr. TICHESON has introduced a bill giving county and criminal court clerks of Ohio county two years further extension on their fees.

The first election by electricity is to occur in New York some time this week. The press and public are not to be admitted to the polls.

Mr. TICHESON has introduced a bill, however, to the House of the Legislature requiring counties to pay $20 per year for maintenance of their paper franchises.

The Democratic State Central Committee has fixed Bowling Green, June 11, as the place and time to select a Democratic candidate for Supreme Court Judge.

COL. G. MARY, who was sent out to give the condition of the state and district, has made his report, and the appropriation has been made. Ohio county is given $1,500 in the appearance.

HON. JOHN FELAND is not sailing on perfectly unfurnished ships. Charges for the services of our agents are to be preferred against him by the disgruntled and disappointed office-seekers. Mr. Feland's character, both private and public, has always been under approach, and will be from now on.

Worrisome tax work loads in the South have been particularly severe. The country all along the Delta of the Mississippi is under water. Great damage has been done to life and property. Dallas, Texas, is reported as having suffered the most. The wrecks, and the damage by flood in that place will reach high up in the figures.

THROUGH the courtesy of Mr. Jas. B. Camp, the popular manager of the Boston Opera Company, we had the pleasure of witnessing the performance of the Mikado by the Gulf Opera Company. It was worth going many miles to see it. The scene and stage were magnificient, the costumes splendid, the acting surpasses. Booth and Modjeska begin an entertainment to-morrow night, continuing through the remainder of the week.

JON G. CARLISLE is one of the soundest thinkers of the day, as well as one of the most interesting men in the world. An article in the Review for May, on Republican promises and performances, he says: "The Republican party policy, and especially its advocacy of the protective tariff, is the school of economists which now dominates that party, has already reduced the cost of most important manufacturing products to the verge of bankruptcy, while its effects upon the agricultural interests of the country have been so general that the way of the people to hear even a part of the land. This has never been a time in our history when there was so much discontent and such a prospect for improvement as there is now among those classes that ought to be prosperous. It is not the wage-earner above that sees his position and complaints to Congress. It is the farmer. Nearly every trade, occupation, and profession is organized to formulate and present its demand for relief, and the Republican Party remains to their appeals to the people to sustain and strengthen the protective system of taxation under which they have been reduced to their present condition. The people are taxed to get money out of the treasury for the benefit of a few favorite classes, is the only remedy it proposes. The evils resulting from thirty years of protection are to be cured by more protection, and the overburdened people are to be relieved by giving away to wealthy individuals and corporations engaged in the foreign carrying trade." Senator Knott says:

"The Senator really believes this pledge will be redeemed in accordance with the obvious meaning of its terms. He has that kind of mind that removes me. Up to the cut-out time there are certainly no indications that the revenue will be reduced; it might be, but that even will be in doubt in my judgment of the government. On the contrary, it is evident that if the policy of tarif man is pursued, it will be carried out. The law may be used in the laws as they now exist will be insufficient to meet the extraordinary demands that will be made upon the country, and taxation will be increased on many important articles. A mere enumeration of the bills that passed in Congress will be sufficient to show the extravagance of the party in power. The bill is a small portion of the bills that would be passed, the existing surplus would be exhausted and a reduction of the revenue will be necessary, or the public debt will have to be increased."

A TEMPEST IN A TEAPOT.
Men have very different views of how far the new influences created by a certain Republican combination going into power over a bill proposed to make a change in the line dividing Butler and Ohio counties, and one of the most reasonable ones, and one that has been looked forward to for years by those who take an interest in that which would at once command my attention.

The question is, did he intend to secure an appropriation to begin the work on the Ronceverte bridge? I am inclined to believe that he intended to do so, and that he will be successful, but taxation will be increased on many important articles.

A mere enumeration of the bills that passed in Congress will be sufficient to show the extravagance of the party in power. The bill is a small portion of the bills that would be passed, the existing surplus would be exhausted and a reduction of the revenue will be necessary, or the public debt will have to be increased."

THE WHIPPING CORD.
House of Representatives, U.S.A., N.Y.
WASHINGTON, D.C., April 10, 1890.
James J. SMITH, Esq., DEAR SIR:
Yours of the 8th inst., asking the date of my arrival, I send you the former just received. While I do not receive your full name, I can add to the information you have given me. You will understand that there was one in the county opposed to the improvement of the river, and that he was a member of the House of Representatives.

The House passed the House bill for the improvement of the river, and I am inclined to believe that it will be passed by the Senate.

EDUCATIONAL AND OTHER MATTERS

[W. L. Morris, Editor.
Vita should be addressed to him, Pleasant
Home, Ky.]

Who was Lydia Darrach?
Who was the first Puritan Governor?
When and where was the first colony planted on the continent?

Do not be so cold or austere as to drive your child from you.

X.—I differ from you in appearance, but am with you in opinion. Do you see it?

What is a meter? It is one ten millionths of a quadrant of the earth's meridian.

Never withhold praise when the child deserves it. Commendation is the best reward of all.

Teach with your child to observe the commandments. "Thou shalt not swear," be careful to use no kind of profanity before it.

One difference between infinitives and participles is that infinitives take only the modals of verbs, while the participles take either those of a verb or a noun.

B.—The errors in language consist in the improper arrangement of words in the use of improper words, in the use of wrong words, and the use of incorrect words.

The theory and practice of preaching embraces the whole science of education. It trains the mind, develops thought, induces action and builds up character.

Will the friend who found the goose sum as grossly, send us the solution of this problem? X square plus y equal to 10. Y square plus x equal to 13. What are the values of x and y? Try it.

Will those who were so opposed to the calling of the Constitutional Convention, now that it is a fact, have no more to do with it? They may be among the very first to offer their services to make us a good Constitution?

No man ever reaches quite as high a degree of excellence as he aims; where she will strike who seems only to aim at the moon, though the life of teacher never was a life of labor, teacher never was a life of labor, teacher never was a life of labor.

If you offer a reward in your school, let it be for popularity or something that the scholars may see how it was won. If you offer a prize for the best boy, have the worst fellow in school say that he is the best. Why not? Are we ashamed of our audience tongue? If you are English, speak English. You will understand what you say and be understood by others.

J.—The difference in grammar between either Latin or Greek, that either language has the omission of words, while English signifies the omission of letters. A simile is a comparison expressed, a metaphor is a comparison implied. We think you write a very good letter.

A poem is a composition for the door.

"A dog is a useful servant. The children can play with him and have lots of fun. A dog saved my life one day. You see I was passing by and I jumped over a hole in the ground. My dog ran after me, jumping over the fence and saving me to pieces."

How you tickle those horrid little brats which mar the prettiest faces?

If so, scarse horridness is but a cold son of milk, should it stand twelve hours, skin and apply two or three times per day.

Some powder to wash the skin at night with elder-flower water, and apply an ointment made by stirring gently one ounce of white lead with two ounces of almond oil of bitter almonds. When it requires consistency, three drops of oil of rhodium may be added. Wash the ointment off in the morning with rose water. Brat to a note.

This water is another essential, and should be taking half an ounce of dried white roses, a dash of musk and a sprig of mace; with this mix twelve drops of rose-water, a quart of water, two ounces of ale-pond and mix in a gradual manner, filter through blotting paper.

To remove wrinkles take one ounce of white wax, melt to gentle heat; add two drops of the juice of orange, two ounces of honey, one drachm of rose water and a drachm or two of rose.

Tepid water should be instead of cold addition. Cold cream is necessary, particularly, and can be made in the following manner. Melt together a pint of oil of sweet almonds, half an ounce of spermaceti, and half a pint of rose water.

Water is another essential, and should be taking half an ounce of dried white roses, a dash of musk and a sprig of mace; with this mix twelve drops of rose-water, a quart of water, two ounces of ale-pond and mix in a gradual manner, filter through blotting paper.

For wrinkles there is no remedy more essential than Dr. H. C. Gentry, "Cough Gun" for Coughs. Pleasant, Conn., A. Sold by Z. Waynes Griffin & Son.

CONSTITUTION INTRUDERS? Read the following: Mr. H. Morris, New York, Arts.—"Was down with Adhesive Rheumatism, and was unable to move himself on account of his disease. He took Dr. King's New Discovery, or Dr. King's New Discovery, and the last remnant of infirmities will be destroyed, and the cure given to pre-judged. Let him procure the services of one of the evangelists who has the secret of Dr. King's New Discovery, and the cure will be given to him." "I don't just exactly know what that is?"

"Of course, that is it?"

"Is that B? Well, if you know so well what you are what you are bathering me in?"

A newspaper advertises "a popular novel and a popular sermon" for every issue. Now let Barron advertise a popular sermon with every exhibition of his book. That will be a good idea, and the rest of the world will be destroyed, and the cure given to pre-judged. What is it? Well, though the world would be the mother, the grand-mother, the aunts, the uncles, the wives, the carer nothing for the child, but he went along to help care baby, for the subject for the newspaper writing. They could all go to hear the sermon, which you know, is laudable and commendable.

WANT ADVERTISING

Guarance Dr. Asher's Blood Liver, for the been fully demonstrated to the people of this country that it is an excellent medicine for all diseases. It is a positive cure for syphilis, gonorrhoea, pleurisy, epilepsy and fits, and thoroughly upsets the constitution. Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN & SON, 48nd

DECEIVED.

ROBERT L. EVERETT,

Believe from the galling letters that you are not deceived, but in a similar vein of the letters that I return to you.

The present wanted money, being
the past due, and the present due,
the past due in my present writing.

How real does the present due for

And ladies and gentlemen who desire to make money rapidly we offer a splendid opportunity. We have a large number of small portraits of Jesus Christ and other saints, which are to be sold at a high price.

and makes him look like a young man.
Those who are young it gives you.

Those who are old it gives you.
It destroys wrinkles, whitens the skin,
and makes him look like a young man.
Those who
